

Segel Podiatry

Dr. Jay Segel, DPM

20 Pond Rd/Box 3000 PMB 3003, West Tisbury, MA 02575 ph: 508/696-6461

Post Graduate Curriculum Vitae for Jerome (Jay) D. Segel D.P.M.

- 1981: "Outstanding Service in Clinics" award from Salvation Army
- 1981-3: Teaching Assistant for Taping, Casting, and Injections, Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine
Podiatric Externship with extended clinical and surgical training with Dr. Alan Wittenberg, Faculty, Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine
- 1982: Podiatric Externship Program under Dr. Errol Schoenbrun, DPM
- 1983: Graduated from the Ohio College Of Podiatric Medicine
Diplomate of the National Board of Podiatric Examiners postdoctoral course in Minimal Incision Surgery
Obtained Massachusetts Podiatric Medicine License #1701
Residency Program--Harvard University Teaching Hospitals Obtained DEA Certificates, Massachusetts & Federal Accepted to the Medicare, Medicaid, and Blue Shield Physician Program
- 1983-2004: Private Podiatric Medicine practice on Martha's Vineyard
- 1984: Invented the L8D Biomechanical Strapping for Plantar fasci-itis and heel pain
Moved to Martha's Vineyard to establish a podiatric medical practice
Advisor to Avia Shoes and wear test staff
- 1985: Member, Canadian Podiatric Sports Medicine Academy
- 1985-87: Gathered and analyzed electrodiagnostic data from patient population of unique "L8D" taping.
- 1985-89: Aerobics Instructor-Senior Citizens Exercise Program-Oak Bluffs, MA
- 1986: Awarded to Dr. Jay Segel "Clinical Field Test and Evaluation Center for Podiatric Sports Medicine and Biomechanical Orthotic Devices"
Member, Podiatric Circulatory Society

- 1987: Invented the “J” sport carbon graphite biomechanical orthotic device with Jason Kraus of Langer Biomechanics Group
Fellow, Academy of Clinical Electrodynography
- 1987-89: Health Care Access Committee-Co-Chair, created Island Health Care Guide Steamship Authority Handicapped Advisory Board--Non-smoking and wheelchair access for Martha’s Vineyard ferry
- 1988 -89: Medical Advisor and Board Member, Colonial Nurses Association
- 1984-9: Private Practitioner of Podiatry specializing in Sports
Certified in CRS (Counter Rotational System) for intoe gait syndrome
Certified in EDG (Computerized Gait Analysis System) 1986
Field Test Facility for Othoses/Langer Biomechanics
- 1989: Injury to left shoulder and C-spine-9 month hiatus from Podiatry Office
Designed and wear tested sports shoes
- 1990-2: Invented Y-Lock Shoe Modification, testing, R&D for the invention
- 1993-95: Sports Medicine Advisor/Evaluation and Testing for Brooks Shoes
- 1992-94: Medical Advisor, R&D for Sports Licensing, Inc./Brine Sporting Goods
Inventor/Cofounder of pilot project for the development of composite toe safety work boots with Jason Kraus
- 1994: Granted Utility Patent for “Shoe Equipped With Internal Orthotic Cradle Device” Y-Lock U.S. Patent Number 5,323,549 28 June, 1994
- 1995: Pursued 2nd patent of Y-Lock modification with research and development
- 1995-97: Coach-Youth Soccer and later Board Vice President of Friends of Vineyard
Soccer
- 1998-2000: Medical Director in charge of the Medicare -Mac program--Electronic Billing Podiatric Medical Program at Martha’s Vineyard-helped to coordinate
- 1996-2004: Cofounder/CEO and Medical Director of New England Antiquarian Research & Title dealing with Repatriation of Native American Remains, maps, manuscripts and artifacts in Europe.
- 2004: Participating Medicare Provider of foot products, Othoses &Diabetic Shoes
DMERC Region A